Sergeant Meshauk, now on his second four year enlistment in the U. S. Marines, is shown as he drills Wright and Pvt. Robert H. Wilde, of Salem, in the use of the bayonet. All three are at present on duty at the Marine barracks, Philadelphia Navy yard.

Congress Puts O.K. On Big
Navy Bill And China Loan

Senate Takes Five Minutes To Approve 26-Million-Dollar Measure; F. D. R. Gets Legislation

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The senate completed legislative action in five minutes today on a $26,495,265,474 naval supply bill, boosting congress' total military appropriations to approximately $39,000,000,000 in the first month of this session.

This action followed swiftly on a 72-to-0 vote by which it passed and sent to the White House a measure making $500,000,000 in financial aid available to China, the fund to be administered by the secretary of the treasury under direction of the President.

The huge naval bill, largest measure of its kind ever to win approval of a legislative body, now goes to President Roosevelt for expected early signature. Congress previously had voted and the President approved a $12,550,000,000 army airplane appropriation.

As finally approved, the navy measure carried approximately $8,000,000,000 in cash and contract authority to produce 25,063 additional airplanes and equipment for the navy in the next six months.

Ship construction would entail expenditures of $8,206,000,000, fleet operations would cost $6,923,000,000 and $1,339,000,000 would go into maintenance and personnel payments. Only 20 minutes of debate preceded senate passage of the China aid measure.

E LIVERPOOL SAILOR IS KILLED IN PACIFIC

EAST LIVERPOOL, Feb. 5.—This city today counted its first official fatal casualty in naval warfare since Dec. 7 when Robert Devon, 20, radio operator, was reported killed in action.

His death was disclosed to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Devon, by the Navy. He had been in the service 20 months.

Workers Are Trained

TIFFIN, Feb. 5.—Fifteen defense workers will begin Monday at Heidelberg college, with approximately 100 men, chiefly employees of factories here and in neighboring cities, enrolled in engineering and science subjects.

Go To Canton For Exams

Another group of district Selective Service registrants will go to Canton Saturday for examination at the army's medical center there. A local contingent was examined there two weeks ago.

Toledo Driver Is Injured In Accident On Mill-ville Hill

A truck driver was killed and six other persons were hurt in four different traffic accidents in the district last night and this morning. Three of the mishaps involved trucks.

James Watkins, 33, of Smithfield, Jefferson county, died in Salem City hospital at 7:20 a. m. today, about four hours after his steel-laden truck went into a ditch at Hartshorne's crossing on Pennsylvania Route 51, just east of East Palestine.

Pinched In Cab
Watkins was pinned in the cab of his truck when the 10-ton load of steel slid forward. Conscious after being removed from the wreckage, he told East Palestine police that steering apparatus on the truck snapped as he rounded the curve.

City hospital reported that he suffered fractures of both legs, and shock.

A driver for the Aetna Freight Lines, Watkins was transporting a load of steel from Pittsburgh to Cleveland. He was riding alone at the time.

Another accident, caused by a broken axle, sent a truck driven by Linford Gardner, 21, of Toledo, crashing through the guard rail on the Millville hill, just east of Salem, at 9:45 p. m. Wednesday.

The truck was demolished, state highway patrolmen said. Gardner was accompanied at the time by Donald M. Johnson of 123 Washington st., Leetonia.

Escape With Bruises
Brought to City hospital, Gardner was found to have escaped with bruises about the head, chest and legs. His condition is said to be satisfactory. Johnson was given first aid treatment for a head laceration, bruised right shoulder and a chest injury.

Daniel Pappic of 253 Penn. ave. was treated at City hospital at 3:15 a. m. today for a bruised right arm and chest injury, suffered when his car skidded and overturned in a ditch on the Washingtonville-Leetonia road.

Three men were injured when two truck-trailers crashed head-on on Route 224, one mile east of Ellsworth, at 6:30 p. m. yesterday when it was snowing hard.

The crash occurred when a truck operated by George Greenwell, 23, of Chicago, struck a bridge and then careened into the other truck driven by Edward Marks, Jr., 26, of Beaver Falls, Pa. The front ends of both vehicles were demolished.

Greenwell suffered a sprained ankle, while Marks received a bad nose laceration. Floyd Bean, 29, of South Bend, Ind., riding with Greenwell, was killed in the crash and head laceration. The men were treated at Youngstown South Side hospital.

Newsies "Enlist"; Will Sell Defense Stamps

They'll Take Your Order For As Many As You Want, And Deliver Them

A new army, not fighting with guns but with U. S. Defense Savings stamps, was recruited today from among the city newspaper boys of The Salem News and immediately went on active duty.

When these boys were told what they were being asked to volunteer for, its need to help make our war effort a success, they willingly signed the oath of duty.

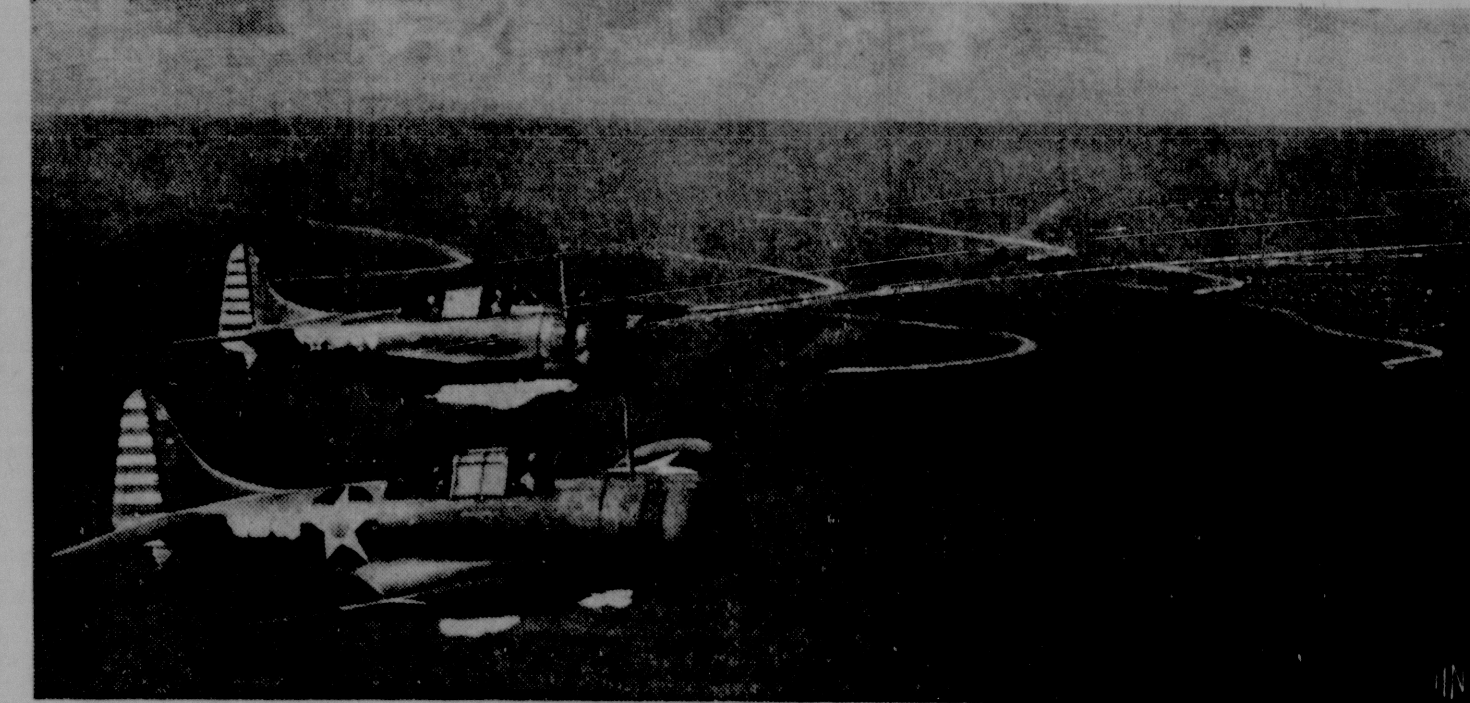

"I hereby pledge allegiance to my country and its flag," that pledge reads, "and do solemnly promise to serve to the best of my ability as an official U. S. defense agent for the sale of Defense Savings stamps."

"I promise I will not only explain the advantages of saving through defense stamps and bonds to my customers, but that I will also offer to sell and to deliver to their homes as many Defense Savings stamps in 10 cent denominations as they may desire to purchase each week."

"I further promise that I will set an example for the others in my neighborhood by purchasing or earning Defense Savings stamps myself."

"I offer my services with no thought of reward or remuneration."

Eyes Of Pacific Patrol Force Hunting Axis Ships And Submarines

Top—This picture was made from a dive bomber somewhere on the Pacific during an offensive patrol. These craft are seeking out Axis vessels and undersea craft. The ships are shown executing a turn in the water far below while the planes keep an alert eye from above. They have been working in earnest to repay Japan with interest for her sneak raid on Pearl Harbor.

PTA WILL SPONSOR
HEALTH PROGRAM

LISBON, Feb. 5.—The Parent-Teacher association is planning a program of instruction for parents whereby the health of school children may be safeguarded.

The classes will be held in the David Anderson High school. Parents are invited to attend and learn, without cost, about nutrition, diet and general health rules. Instructors will be Miss Ruth Pelton, home economics teacher in the High school; Mrs. Arch Dalton, a graduate dietitian, and Mrs. Gladys Bye, county health nurse.

Will Ask Paint Bids

LISBON, Feb. 5.—County commissioners today prepared to ask bids on approximately 1,200 gallons of paint for use in marking county highways and painting of guard rails during the year, which is an average of a little better than a gallon per mile for the 1120 miles of highways.

Included in the bid will be yellow paint for the marking of danger lines in the center of the highways, white paint for the center line and guard rails, and black paint for guard rail posts.

Spring Drive Before

(By Associated Press)
Soviet Russia's winter campaign, designed to cripple the Nazis and break their spring offensive before it can get under way, pressed centers of resistance at a cost to the Germans of at least 8,100 officers and soldiers killed and wounded.

On the North African front, British headquarters declared imperial mobile columns and patrols were active "along the whole of our front," but gave no details of the fighting. Premier Mussolini's high command said Axis troops had swept beyond Derna, 95 miles west of Tobruk, and were "continuing to pursue the enemy eastward."

This meant that the Axis counter-offensive had already rolled back within 175 miles of the Egyptian-Libyan frontier, regaining half the ground lost in the British

Waste Paper And Other
Reclaimable Materials

A campaign for the collection of waste paper and scrap metals is being organized by the Salvage committee of the Civilian Defense council of Salem to get under way in the near future.

The object of the committee's work is to promote the flow of such reclaimable used materials as paper, metal and rubber back into the channels of production where they may be used again in the all-out effort to help win the war.

Children Will Help

Arrangements have been made for children of all the public and parochial schools to collect this material and take it to the school building in their respective districts. Dealers who purchase the salvage materials will send their trucks to the schools to pick up whatever has been collected. Regular collections will be made by the children from time to time and collection dates will be announced in ample time.

Any school, club, or organization which has been collecting and selling paper or scrap materials of any sort is encouraged to continue to do so. The Salvage committee's object is to supplement the work now being done so as to effect a complete coverage of the entire community.

Whatever money is derived from the sale of salvage materials collected is to be used by the schools for the purchase of playground, library and supplemental equipment as the funds will permit.

Residents and organizations in the city are urged to begin saving materials so they will be ready for

CHINESE LEADERS
HELP DRAFT BOARDS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 5.—Because they wanted to help sign up members of their race for selective service, 15 Chinese leaders have been sworn in as draft registrars in a downtown district. Headed by Dea H. ing, executive secretary of the Chinese Benevolent Aid society, the committee of 15 explained that its members wanted to help their native land and their adopted land by smoothing out any registration difficulties for an estimated 200 eligibles between the ages of 20 and 44.

The Chinese registrars will help any individuals whose English may not be up to par, and prevent any difficulties over differences in Chinese calendar dates.

(By Associated Press)
SINGAPORE, Feb. 5.—Despite continuous bombing and strafing by Japanese airmen, Singapore's artillery has blasted enemy observation posts, knocked out opposing batteries and spread destruction among Japanese troops moving into jump-off points for invasion of this island stronghold.

That the Japanese still have not won complete control of the air was demonstrated this morning by RAF Hurricanes which intercepted a large formation over Singapore, shot down one Japanese plane probably another and damaged a third.

300 Civilian Casualties

Civilian casualties from the past two days of bombing and machine-gun strafing by the Japanese air force neared the 300 mark—228 injured and 63 killed. The people had virtually no safe places of refuge from bombs, officially, however, these casualties were called comparatively light.

(The Japanese reported that their guns had been thundering across the mile-wide Johore strait since 6 p. m. yesterday, Singapore time. A Tokyo broadcast said that the siege guns were pouring a steady stream of fire into the British forces and their positions in a grove of rubber trees near the head of the breached causeway leading from the Malayan mainland.)

Large movements of Japanese troops through Johore state toward the shore facing Singapore island were reported by British reconnaissance planes. Enemy troops have been massing in the area of Johore Bahru since the British imperial forces finally withdrew from their island stronghold last Friday night and early Saturday.

The Japanese guns emplaced across the strait from Singapore began shelling the strongly-fortified island last night and British guns retaliated with a bombardment of Japanese transports in the Johore Bahru area and of gun positions.

Japanese planes kept up their raids, making high level and low dive bombings and machine-gun attacks on Singapore, but the British Far East command said they caused comparatively little damage or casualties.

ORDERS SHUTDOWN
ON FUND PROBLEM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Speaker Rayburn ordered an immediate shutdown between two house committees today on which would sponsor a $300,000,000 fund for compensating workers displaced by wartime production, which some claim would "federalize" similar state programs.

With neither the appropriations nor ways and means committee indicating a desire to take the initiative, Rayburn said he had asked Chairman Doughton (D-NC) to call a meeting of the latter group for today.

"I think they will meet and see whether they can get together," Rayburn said. "This program will be worth a lot more now than several weeks or months later."

President Roosevelt asked for the fund two weeks ago. He said that state programs were inadequate for thousands of workers thrown out of jobs because their factories shut down long enough to convert themselves to production of war materials. He suggested that the federal government make up about 60 per cent of a man's wages, with a $24-a-week maximum for 26 weeks.

ANOTHER WRINKLE

The surplus in the Ohio treasury, largest of all surpluses in all state treasuries, according to National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers, might come in handy for a purpose not yet mentioned in public discussion. Minnesota and West Virginia, dealing with the same problem, are considering proposals for salting away their surpluses to use on post-war projects when revenues are expected to decline.

The analogy between sound personal practice in the matter of saving and prudent management of government funds is made closer by the fact that some states are investing their surpluses in Defense Savings Bonds. All of them are facing the likelihood of an immediate slump in income from the high levels of 1941, due to tire rationing and reduction in gasoline consumption. They are all up against the same proposition, in other words. They are trying to foresee what will work best in the long run, which always entails holding a little something in reserve for the rainy day that always comes.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

Civilization in the United States, it has been claimed, edges out its competitors by the margin of service with a smile. This country has specialized in service, has included service in the fixed overhead, has made a science of service—has even formed service clubs to spread the gospel.

The habit will endure, but it already is evident that one of the things the war will affect is the quality of some of the service. Conservation has been hard on the service industries. There has been a chronic shortage of service truck drivers, for instance, since the selective service law went into effect. Curtailment of delivery schedules has added further to the decline of what formerly was incredibly good service.

It is going to be more difficult to make the adjustment to a service shortage than it would have been if Americans had not been accustomed to more attention and cheerfulness for less money than any other population group. But it is one of the things that must be done as part of the adjustment to the necessities of wartime. The service that used to be given with a smile and accepted as a matter of course will need to be accepted with a smile when it falls short of the rigorous standards set by gasoline station employees, bellhops of the service flock in the United States.

DOUBLE TIME FOR DOUBLE QUICK

The automobile industry in the Detroit area, America's prime hope for mass production of certain sorely needed implements of war, is threatened with serious trouble over the double time issue. The CIO has taken the position that whenever seven-day schedules are put into effect, which means treating Sunday the same as any other day, workmen should receive double time for all Sunday work. Walter Reuther, speaking for automobile workers in his union, is quoted in the New York Times as saying: "We are willing to give up anything necessary for the security of our country, but we are not willing to surrender any of our hard-won gains just to enrich the corporations." He does not specify how the corporations are to be enriched under straight seven-day schedules, though no one will doubt they would be impoverished with Sunday work payable at double rates.

The war labor board has been asked to settle the dispute, and in the meantime it seems likely this is the best possible time for individuals to make up their own minds on a point of personal policy. Do they expect double time for double quick, or are they so fearful of someone else taking advantage of them that they are going to beat the other fellow to the punch? If it's the latter in any considerable number of cases, the war suddenly has taken a turn for the worse as far as the United States is concerned.

OUR LABOR POTENTIAL

Brig. Gen. Hershey's prediction that women and "limited service" men will be called on to augment the national industrial force gives official status to the obvious plan for replacing men called for active duty. At the same time, Gen. Hershey repeats a warning against hysteria on the part of local selective service boards in handling claims for occupational deferment. There are, he seems to feel, more legitimate claims than are being allowed.

The labor potential of the United States is too much for even the statisticians to tackle. Only one thing about it is certain; it is a great deal higher than the actual labor output at the moment and must be realized as rapidly as possible to increase production of war material.

In attempting to do this, the United States can profit from the experience of Great Britain. The British, confronted with the necessity of developing an army large enough to meet any contingency, have fallen back on the labor skills of women to maintain their industrial output at desired levels. In many cases, women have released men for other duties. There has been free use of the aged and partly disabled on jobs they could perform.

All this has entailed a difficult process of adjustment since the war began in the autumn of 1939, but it has been done—and satisfactorily, according to reports by responsible officials. In the United States, where the same job was undertaken in earnest during the first half of 1941 and is only now beginning to show the desired results, it will be done satisfactorily, too. It is one of the things that must be done to assure victory—as essential as winning the battles on the fighting fronts.

THE STARS SAY:

For Friday, February 6

WHILE there are indications of some success and fair fortune, yet there are also adverse figures telling of trouble or wrangling with the public and in intimate relations, love, affairs, domestic or social contacts. These should be handled with poise, forbearance and sympathetic understanding. Such inharmonies may be precipitated by a tendency to sly intrigues, treachery or erratic urges. Repression and good judgment may avert much unhappiness.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may encounter some fair good fortune, although there may be difficulties and inharmonies in all domestic, affectional and social contacts, also in public or group relations. A propensity to suspicion, intrigue and misunderstanding may avert favorable elements.

A child born on this day may be eccentric, tricky, given to intrigue and misrepresentation.

FOOD FOR POST-WAR WORLD

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—An international farm program to furnish food in plenty for the whole post-war world and avert economic chaos among its peoples was advocated today by the Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations.

International committees of producers and consumers would be set up under the program to regulate production, marketing and prices of all major farm commodities throughout the world.

The warring nations have distorted the normal economic patterns of agriculture in their efforts to make production fit war needs, said the office, which is under the department of agriculture. As a consequence many countries, particularly in German-controlled Europe, are not now producing products which they are best suited to produce.

As examples, the office cited European efforts to become self-sufficient in production of wheat, vegetable oil crops, and fiber crops.

"The dangers of social repercussions resulting from economic maladjustment of production in the post-war period are tremendous," it was said. "If the full productive capacity is utilized, without planning to meet the actual needs, large surpluses may be expected to pile up that may again cause prices to collapse under pressure."

KEEP NATION'S HEALTH UNIMPAIRED

Clendening Has Suggestions For Defense Workers

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

I HAVE a suggestion, in fact something of a program for the medical departments of the Civilian Defense Committees that are being set up in all of our cities.

Just how much emergency work these committees will be called on to do remains to be seen. If we have an influenza epidemic such as we had during the last years of World War I, of course they will have plenty to do.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

With movements of large masses of population, we must expect at least to be prepared for epidemics of infectious diseases, and if they come they are likely to strain the resources of our civilian hospitals and civil medical profession. The medical departments of the Civilian Defense Committees will certainly have to assume the role of direction of all activities in such circumstances. In the, I hope remote, event of air raids they will assume even more rigid authority. Such emergencies aside, what are the medical departments of civilian defense to do? I feel they have a great opportunity in that they can take advantage of the general spirit of community alertness and willingness to cooperate that such an emergency as this engenders, to carry out health measures on the population that cannot readily be enforced in peace time. These measures are not experiments. They are tried and true. They are not theoretical and they are guaranteed to improve the health of America and Canada for years to come.

Lack of Enforcement
Why, you will ask, have they not already been enforced? They have to a certain extent, but universal enforcement falls by the wayside in ordinary times because of indifference, carelessness and lack of a common spirit of cooperation.

One such thing is the enforcement of universal smallpox vaccination. Nobody knows how large an unvaccinated population we have. The health boards try to enforce it with indifferent success. Every once in a while when smallpox breaks out in a certain community, we are shocked to find that a large proportion of the population is unprotected.

Here is something that is tried and true. There is no real opposition to it except among a microscopic lunatic fringe. The Army certainly believes in it. If you undertake to visit a foreign country—our good South American neighbors for instance—you find that the steamer companies and the health officers of the foreign countries believe in it.

The reason for neglect of universal enforcement in our civil population is carelessness and indifference almost entirely. Here is an opportunity to utilize the splendid surge of awakened consciousness to community obligation to rid our country of the dangers of smallpox for another generation.

The same applies to universal typhoid inoculation. The health boards watch the water but nobody can tell in a military emergency when that supervision may have to break down. In visiting the site of a large defense production plant recently I found that there had been several cases of typhoid fever reported and that the purity of the water supply was giving concern. The only sure way of universal protection for life is by individual inoculation.

Again here is a great opportunity for tuberculosis case findings—to weed out all the suspected cases of tuberculosis in the community and segregate the carriers. Fifty years ago tuberculosis and typhoid were the biggest killers. A hundred and fifty years ago smallpox, typhoid and tuberculosis were the biggest killers. In that short a time in man's history we have learned how to control them. Let us apply the control universally. Wouldn't it be a wonderful thing if we could wipe out those enemies for the next few generations?

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
A. M.: I am interested in obtaining facts concerning lipoma fatty growths or tumors under the skin. What really causes this condition? Can it be controlled by certain vitamins? Is there anything the patient can do to correct the condition or to prevent the spreading of these growths?

Answer: Lipoma is an overgrowth of fatty tissue which is the nature of a benign tumor. They never become malignant or cancerous. As in the case of all other tumors, we do not know the cause. They certainly cannot be controlled by vitamins. They do no harm except when they are very large or where they are in a place that the clothing rubs on the overlying skin and causes soreness and irritation. Under these circumstances a lipoma should be removed surgically. This is considered a minor operation and can be done under local anesthesia.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet let sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 E. 45th st., New York. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene," and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Sued In Auto Accident

LISBON, Feb. 5.—William Toothman of East Liverpool was named defendant in a $3,000 damage action filed in common pleas court Tuesday by Charles Shasten, also of that city, on behalf of his four-year-old daughter, Dolores, who was seriously injured when struck by a car driven by the defendant.

The accident occurred on Virginia ave. in East Liverpool last Nov. 13th. The child is said to have been struck as she stepped into the street. The petition states the child suffered a fracture of the right leg and body bruises.

SCOUTS READY IF EMERGENCY COMES

What's in a name? Not too much, argue the Boy Scouts of America. The Emergency Service Corps, organized in 1940, is thought by many to be a new idea. It isn't. Only the name is new to scouting. Originally designed to provide an outlet for the ability of boys over Boy Scout age (15 years), it is an outgrowth of the 32-year practice of scouting to "be prepared."

However, with war at our doorstep, the Emergency Service Corps becomes an important unit in home defense. While membership in the corps itself is restricted to boys 15 years of age and over, all the skills they learn can be learned, and often are learned, within the patrol of the regular scout troop, by boys under 15.

While no one wishes to see the war come to our own cities and towns, the Emergency Service Corps is ready to render extensive assistance in the event of any disaster such as flood, tornado or fire, in first aid, fire fighting, mass feeding and housing, communications, messenger service, water rescue and many other services. Older boys receive training in the handling of charged electric wires, management of mechanical equipment, etc.

Today this sort of information strikes a responsive chord in the average citizen.

Little does he realize that this sort of thing does not blossom overnight. Rather it results from years—literally a generation of Scouting. During the first World War, Boy Scouts rendered such services wherever and whenever needed. Since that time local and national emergencies have seen Boy Scouts on the scene trained and ready to render service from first aid to communications.

Boy Scouts are prepared.

Switzerland is encountering difficulties in maintaining its all-essential foreign trade.

THE Firestone Extra Mileage PLAN

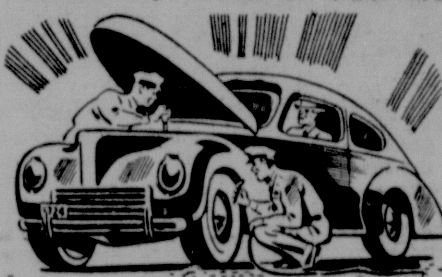

Helps You Get MORE MILEAGE FROM YOUR TIRES

And Keeps Your Car Operating Longer And More Economically

TODAY it is the responsibility of us all to make our tires and cars last longer. Frequent and regular care by service experts has always been advisable in tire and car maintenance. Now it is essential! Firestone originated One-Stop Service for car owners years ago in the belief that both tires and cars should receive frequent and expert attention. Our great variety of services, many of which are free, and the wealth of tire knowledge which our trained service men possess become yours when you sign up for The Firestone Extra Mileage Plan.

Here's What You Do!

COME IN, REGISTER FOR THE FIRESTONE Extra Mileage PLAN

The Firestone plan is simple — no red tape — no obligation. You don't pay for any service you don't order. You don't order any service you don't want. We thoroughly inspect your tires and car. Your car is registered. You select a date for future month to month inspection. We keep an accurate monthly record of your car. This service is free. You pay only for materials you order.

USE THE WINDSHIELD STICKER FOR PREFERRED SERVICE

You receive a windshield sticker for preferred attention as soon as you drive into our station. Your tires will be inflated to recommended pressure and inspected for injuries that might cause premature failure, and your battery and spark plugs will also be tested. Remember—all this service is free.

FOLLOW THE SUGGESTIONS IN THIS FREE BOOKLET

You will be given a copy of "How to Get More Mileage From Your Tires and Keep Your Car Operating Longer and More Economically." This booklet suggests simple driving rules to lengthen the life of tires and car.

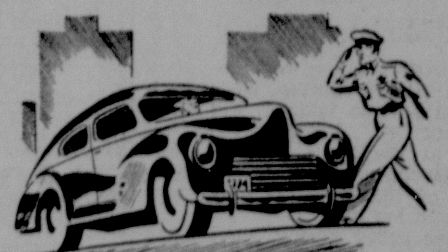

COME IN FOR REGULAR MONTHLY INSPECTION

Frequent and regular inspection is important. You tell us what day of the month will be most convenient for you to have a thorough bumper-to-bumper inspection. You will receive a post-card reminder several days in advance to bring in your car for our complete inspection service.

Here's What We Do!

WE SEND YOU A REMINDER ONCE A MONTH TO COME IN FOR Extra Mileage SERVICE

When you drive in, we inflate your tires and examine them for any breaks, bruises or cuts. We test your battery, spark plugs and brakes. We check your car's lubricating system, wheel alignment, wheel balance, ignition system, lights and wheel bearings.

WE ADVISE YOU OF SERVICE REQUIRED

You receive a complete report of our free inspection. Where performance can be improved, service will be suggested for your approval.

WE BRAND YOUR INITIALS ON ALL YOUR TIRES

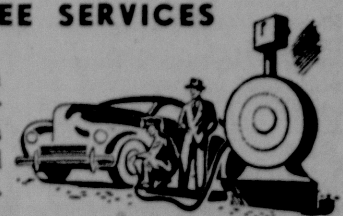

We will brand all your tires with your initials. This "Saffi-Brand" service gives you added protection and personalizes your tires.

WE CHARGE ONLY FOR SERVICE YOU AUTHORIZE

No service is charged unless you expressly authorize it. If you are a careful driver, your car may run for months without needing service other than the free inspection offered under The Firestone Extra Mileage Plan.

IN ADDITION WE RENDER THESE FREE SERVICES EVERY TIME YOU COME IN

As soon as we see the Extra Mileage sticker on your windshield we render the services given under this Extra Mileage plan. Your Extra Mileage sticker is your assurance of having your tire inflation checked and your battery inspected every time you come in. Register today for Firestone Extra Mileage free service.

OFFICIAL TIRE INFORMATION

Bring questions about new and used tires to us. If you hold a rationing board certificate, bring it to us for new tires. We are in constant touch with official information about tire rationing, retreads, new regulations and methods of conserving rubber.

PAY DAMAGE CLAIMS
WHEN WAR IS OVER
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Owners of property damaged by Jap bombings in the Philippines and Hawaii will have to wait until the war's end to collect under the free war damage insurance program being set up by congress.

Their losses since December 7 have been estimated to be as high as $100,000,000, and Commerce Secretary Jesse Jones said "there will probably be continuing losses there until the war is over."
Jones, whose Reconstruction Finance Corporation will finance the war insurance program already approved by the senate, told the house banking and currency committee that while the territories and possessions are included in the broad coverage, "that should be handled by congress later, when it is possible to get over there and see what the losses have been."
"There is no way to do it now and will not be any way to do it until the end of the war," Jones said.
Jones and a majority of the house committee, which expected to put the finish touches on the insurance bill at an executive meeting today, were agreed that the $15,000 top on free property coverage provided by the war was too high. The generally suggested top was $5,000. The senate measure would grant free coverage to all up to $15,000, and charge a premium, to be worked out later, for coverage over that amount.

Approved China Loan, But Urges Help To Soviet
Be Increased
(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Increased deliveries of military supplies to Russia were urged today by Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) as Republicans joined with Democrats in seeking to expedite final congressional approval of a measure extending $500,000,000 in financial aid to China.

Voicing approval of the proposed China loan, Pepper told reporters that this country also ought to do everything it could to speed up the transfer of war materials to Russia so the Soviets would be as well prepared as possible for the promised Nazi spring offensive.

Needed In Pacific
The Florida senator said he did not doubt that the necessity of rushing reinforcements to the southwestern Pacific had interfered with the schedule of deliveries to Russia, causing the lag which has created considerable concern in some quarters here.

Pepper declared that this deficiency in shipments should be remended as speedily as possible.
"I have no doubt that the Russian government recognizes the difficulties that we face," he said,
"but we ought to let them know that we mean to keep our word and to give them what we have said we would deliver."

While the matter of Soviet supplies was to the fore in discussions, the senate foreign relations committee arranged to hear six government officials today on the need for the Chinese loan. Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky said that once the committee recommended passage of the measure, he would ask the senate to consider it immediately. Republican Leader McNary of Oregon said he had no personal objection to waiving the senate rule requiring that all bills lay over a day after committee action.

Makes Credits Available
The measure would authorize the secretary of treasury, with approval of the President, to make up to $500,000,000 in credits available to the Chungking Chinese government.
Awaiting committee action on the bill, the senate arranged to act finally on a $26,495,265.474 naval supply bill. Approved yesterday by the house, the record-breaking appropriations bill would be sent to President Roosevelt on senate adoption of a conference report.

Leaders meanwhile sought house action on a senate-approved measure authorizing the planting of 75,000 acres of western hemisphere land to Guayule, rubber bearing plant.

PLANS OUTLINED BY WOMEN CAMPERS
Rural women campers from Columbiana county voted at their camp reunion last week to camp this year at Camp Whitewood near Windsor, in Ashland county.

Twenty-seven former campers met for their get-together at the Salem grange hall last Friday to make definite plans for their rural women's camp this summer. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. H. L.
Reuter, is president of the group.

Mrs. Blanche Slutz, Salem, told the group about the new camp site.
Pictures taken at Camp Whitewood were shown by Miss Erma Ramsey-er, home demonstration agent.
Camp Whitewood, where the woman will go this year, is an extension camp organized and sponsored by four northeastern counties, Geauga, Lake, Trumbull, and Ashland.

It is sponsored by the agricultural extension service from these counties on May 8, representatives from Gauga, Lake, Trumbull, Portage, and Columbiana counties will meet to make definite plans for this summer's camp.

Sinking Of Ships Is Laid To Spy Ring
(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The sinking of an undisclosed number of Allied ships sailing from New York was laid to the groundwork here of a German spy ring in testimony at the espionage trial of six men and a woman.

No less an authority than Heinrich Himmler, Nazi gестапо chief, received information gathered by the ring on the identities, cargo, origins and likely sailing plans of ships in New York harbor, a government witness testified in federal court yesterday.

On the stand all day, Lucy Boehmler, 19-year-old German-born blonde, who herself has pleaded guilty to an espionage indictment, described in detail how the accused spies amassed data on ships—and also on eastern seaboard forts and plane factories—and transmitted their findings abroad.

Ferry trips into the harbor, automobile rides and excursions to the navy yard in Brooklyn and a motor trip to defense centers in southern coastal states provided the information sought by the ring, Miss Boehmler declared.

Once collected, she said, Kurt Frederick Ludwig stoop-shouldered, sleazy-eyed defendant, who, the government charges, was the "brains of the ring," described the data on the backs of ordinary letter papers with invisible ink and sent it to Himmler through mail "drops" in Madrid and Berlin. Ludwig is a former Fremont, O., resident.

Stories On Work Of Tanks Disprove Nazi Propaganda

Berlin Still Follows Hitler Pattern — Attempts To Influence Minds Of The Masses

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Wide World Science Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—German propaganda is one reason America is reading dispatches from Libya about effectiveness of American tanks.

The propaganda claimed British were losing their lives in poor American machines. This was countered by stories from American reporters.

In nearly three years now there has been probably no single war doubt in an American's mind that was not at some time on Berlin's propaganda short waves.

Short wave broadcasts, three hours daily, news bulletins, claims, hints, charges, rumors—a mass that may not look like sense, but in reality a consistent pattern.

Berlin Still Trying Hitler himself laid down the principle: to aim at convincing the masses. That takes time, and Berlin is still trying. The object is to split Britons and Americans—split Americans groups.

Berlin started by talking to special American groups. There were the women's clubs, college hours, topical talks, music lovers programs, business men, German-Americans, scandal-mongers, upper classes, anti-Semites, auto drivers, mid-westerners, unemployed, New Yorkers.

All centered, not so much on splitting, and not so much in creating pro-German feeling, as in destroying pro-British sentiment.

Berlin chose personable speakers.
Fred W. Kaltenbach, ("my views are not necessarily those of this station"). He is not to be confused with the American commentator, Kaltenborn. He spoke with a midwestern drawl, is a native of Iowa, with a Berlin university doctorate.

Once a week he talked to "dear
Harry and the folks back home."
There was E. D. Ward, another midwesterner, identified as Edward Delaney, publicity man, actor and author. Dr. Anders (Dr. Otherwise), "Your Friend," who was Dr.
Otto Kolschitz, German former member of Hunter college faculty,
New York City.

And Constance Drexel. Of her it is written by Jerome S. Bruner of Harvard that she was announced as a Philadelphia socialite but that her name was spelled Drechsel in communications sent him by the German Library of Information in New York.

"Gertie" Is Listed Gertrude Hahn was Gertie the telephone operator. She played the role of a switchboard of a fictitious newspaper, the Pittsburgh Tribune, telling the paper's inner workings to her friend Nancy.

She let slip bits of condemnation for Rosenbloom and Finkelstein, her editors, so extremely pro-British that they twisted the dispatches sent from Berlin by the paper's German correspondent, Joe Gertie's boy friend.

IF YOU HAVE A TIP, GIVE IT TO THE FBI
CLEVELAND, Feb. 5.—The growing FBI office here wants private citizens to tell it about any suspected activities against the government.

Lee V. Boardman, agent in charge, reiterated today that "no matter how silly or fantastic a tip may seem to a private citizen, we would like to have the information as soon as possible, for there have been many instances of damage to our war effort that could have been prevented had we known what some private citizen knew weeks before."

Without disclosing the size of the force which now is occupying new office quarters, Boardman said "we are better prepared than we have ever been to do our job. Our force in Cleveland has been tripled within the last year."

Whether citizens furnish information by personal calls, mail or telephone they will be given prompt attention, said Boardman, despite the fact that the office has 4,700 investigations pending.

He disclosed that in two days of the week following the attack on Pearl Harbor his office received 400 telephone calls.

The agent emphasized that all information will be held in confidence and the identity of any person providing information will be kept secret.

Promote Scores Promoting fifth-column scares in America was another line. Some analysts think this was why the German radio warned that British and French secret services were planning to blow up the liners Manhattan and Roosevelt repatriating Americans from abroad.

There was the terror line. Hitler's armies are irresistible. Another line attacked the ideals of democracy, for those who had doubts of the American way. Yet another praised the American way of life by likening its chances for advancement to those in the new order in Germany. This was for the complacent, the complaisant and the opportunists.

"You can't beat a Yankee in a horse trade," came over the German ether one day. This compliment was for the destroyer-base exchange. But it also was significant of a swing away from trying to split people and politicians and toward trying for cleavage based on race and economics.

The Italians are playing sarcasm.
The American army, says Rome, can never be big because of American decadence—the troops demand hotel service and barracks.
Rome asserts 10,000 persons are employed in the American censorship. That number is declared needed to convince the American public that its army is invincible and Japan is losing.

The British have been sending a larger world volume of short wave than anyone else. But their style has been different, especially to Americans.

It's a Great Consolation To Not Have To Take Laxatives After Taking Them 20 Years

Stomach was Easily Upset and Everything She Ate Would Sour Causing Her to Vomit. Says TON JON Has Done Her a World of Good. Is Only Too Glad To Recommend It.

"Constipation and stomach trouble was a great worry to me for 20 years," said Mrs. Carrie Jewett, R. R. No. 1, Warren, Ohio.

"Every day I had to use strong cathartics to have any bowel reaction and to have to do this for 20 years was very unpleasant and became such a terrible habit that I just couldn't do without them. About twice a week I would have sick headaches that would prevent my doing anything."

"My stomach soured every time I ate and I would vomit thick, yellow liquids. Gas formed in my stomach causing much pain and discomfort, my heart would beat very rapidly and I could hardly get my breath. I became very dizzy at times and my nerves had practically gone to pieces. My back, arms and legs ached all of the time and I was so upset that I never could get a good night's rest."

"I read about TON JON in the paper and it seemed to be exactly what I needed so I bought some and it has done me worlds of good already. My appetite is increased and I can eat with satisfaction because I never vomit anymore. My nerves are normal and all the aches and pains that had bothered me before, have vanished. I never have to take laxatives which is a great consolation to me. I am only too glad to recommend TON JON to all my friends."

We wish to call your attention to the fact that TON JON is not just one medicine, but three different ones, called TON JON 1-2-3. The TON JON Health Representative awaits the courtesy of talking to you about them at the Broadway Lease Drug Store, Salem, Ohio.

DOOR BELL RINGERS LOSE IN OHIO COURT

COLUMBUS, Feb. 5.—A decision of the Ohio supreme court extended a bit of encouragement today to housewives harassed by door bell ringers.

The court declined to disturb an ordinance of Struthers, a Youngstown suburb, which prohibits hand bill distributors from ringing door bells.

The ordinance's constitutionality was challenged by three members of Jehovah's witnesses, who had been convicted of violating the law. The court dismissed their appeal on the ground that no debatable constitutional question was involved.

The court agreed to review the suit of the relief association of union workers of the Carnegie Steel Co. to compel the Equitable Life Assurance Association of the United States to make an accounting under a group insurance policy. Mahoning county courts had ordered the accounting and distribution of a $22,890 surplus to the union group. The court refused to con-

SOVIET ADVANCES PUSH NAZIS BACK

Hope To Cripple German Spring Drive Before It Can Start

thrust which drove Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's forces to El Agheila on the border of Tripolitania. Coupled with the Axis resurgence in Libya, Moscow newspapers warned Turkey to "keep its eyes open" because Hitler "is up to something in the Balkans."

Cites Three Reasons

A Soviet commentator said Hitler planned to seize the Turkish-controlled Dardanelles as a gateway to the oil-rich Caucasus and the eastern Mediterranean, and cited three reasons for the warning to Turkey:

1. The arrival of Nazi Field Marshal Wilhelm List at Salonika, Greece;
2. The return to Berlin of Franz von Papen, German ambassador to Turkey;
3. The charge by German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels that Britain had given Russia a free hand in the Dardanelles.

Foreign military experts at Bern, Switzerland, said the Russian-German campaign had entered a critical phase which would determine how strong a spring offensive Germany could launch when the winter breaks.

These quarters said the Russians might well cripple the Germans if they could capture the key bases of Novgorod, south of Leningrad; Vyazma, on the Smolensk highway; and Orel and Kharkov, south of Moscow.

Russian war reports indicated the Red army was pressing hardest in three salients—west of Moscow toward Smolensk; in the south central front between Kursk and Kharkov; and in the Donets basin.

The front ran roughly from below Leningrad through the Novgorod sector, thence down to a point west of Kirov.

From that sector it swung to the east of Orel, down to Kursk and Kharkov, and to a bulge toward Dnieperpetrovsk, on the Dnieper river, and then around to reach the Sea of Azov east of Taganrog.

Drop Pamphlets In France

In Washington, meanwhile, it was disclosed by Presidential Secretary Stephen Early that RAF bombers are dropping occupied France with millions of pamphlets proclaiming the great scope of America's war plans and telling the conquered people, in effect, that "the Yanks are coming."

The pamphlets were part of an ideological offensive now under way.

Early's disclosure coincided with an official announcement in London of the organization of a tough, hard-hitting reconnaissance corps which would function on land somewhat as Commandos against enemy coasts.

Another straw in the wind indicating an eventual major operation to regain the European continent from Adolf Hitler came from Canada. In Montreal, Lieut. Gen. A. G. McNaughton, Canadian corps commander in Britain, said that staff talks among Canadian, British and United States army commanders in Britain, preparatory to the possibility of an invasion of Europe now were "looked upon as a matter of routine." He said they have been under way for quite a while.

Baptists Confer

Rev. Paul Judson Morris

Dr. Paul Judson Morris, executive secretary of the Ohio Baptist convention, and Dr. W. H. Bowler, associate secretary and field representative, will be the leaders at an association-wide conference in the local First Baptist church this evening.

Church leaders from East Liverpool, Alliance, Locust Grove and Salem will attend the convocation, which is one in a series of 31 mid-year missionary meetings being held in Ohio Baptist churches.

The conference theme is "An Appraisal of the Local Church." Talks by the two leaders will be climaxed by a discussion period and a talking slide presentation of "Humanity's Panorama in Puerto Rico."

A chicken dinner will be served before the meeting by a committee in charge of Miss Frances Leasure. Samuel Paxson has been in charge of promotion activities.

Here and There -- About Town

W. C. T. U. Has Program

W. C. T. U. members, at a meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. L. L. Park on E. Third st., had a program on the topic, "Woman in The Home." Mrs. William T. Hawkins led the devotional service. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. J. L. Greenstein, president.

Members made plans to sew for the Red Cross, with Mrs. Althouse as chairman. Mrs. Parks served refreshments.

The subject for the March 3 meeting will be "The Enemy Speaks"

Fire Is Extinguished

Firemen were called at 6:59 a. m. today to the home of Mrs. Fanny Lowry, 243 S. Ellsworth ave., where flames from a basement gas jet had set fire to the flooring above.

At 6:07 p. m. Wednesday the department responded to an alarm at the Electric Furnace Co. plant where an automatic sprinkler head had let loose.

Increase Is Asked

LORAIN, Feb. 5.—A $1 a day wage increase from the present daily minimum of $5.40 is asked by CIO steel workers employed by the National Tube Co., U. S. steel corp. subsidiary. Thomas Pycraft, secretary of the union local, said that the demand, advanced after a poll, would be forwarded to the union's national headquarters. If granted, the increases would raise national tube's local payroll about $10,000 a day.

SOMEBODY STOLE MY PENNIES!

That's too bad, sonny — for pennies are really important money — especially when spent for electricity. Ask your father or mother to add up all of the different things that electricity is used for every day at your house, and to compare it with what your electric service actually costs. Really, they'll be surprised at what a penny's worth of electricity will do.

Bargain Day for Electricity

While the prices of some things have gone up, it is not true of electricity. Do you know, for instance, that the electricity used to run a mixer—whether it's creaming butter and sugar for a cake, or blending your favorite salad dressing, or whipping potatoes—costs only a small fraction of a penny!

ELECTRIC FURNACE POSTS 2753 MARK TO LEAD TOURNEY

Res: Of Standings Remain Untouched: Grate Hits 234 Game

First place in the city handicap tournament changed hands again last night as the Electric Furnace five of the American league rolled a gross total of 2753 on the Grate alleys. Included in this score was a handicap of 174.

This gave the Furnace men the lead over Jacksons by eight pins. Not another good score was posted by 11 other teams which competed in the five-man event on the third night of the tourney. Splits played have with most of the scores. Earl Grate of the Salem Label team hit 234 for the only high single game of the night.

Franklin To Meet Reiss

TOLEDO, Feb. 5.—The feature ten-round bout of Promoter Jack Laken's Feb. 10 show here will bring together Lem Franklin, Cleveland heavyweight, and Al Reiss, up-and-coming Detroit fighter.

"Nothing To It"

SEATTLE—Mrs. Al Collins expected to be shown the finer points of the game, but nothing like this when her husband took her out for a golf lesson.

"She watched while he stepped up to the tee and with a 'now, like this' sank a 133-yard hole-in-one."

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—(Wide World)—Suggestion noted: Jesse A. Lanthicum, sports ed. of the Baltimore Sun, would like to see something more done about getting basketball referees off the court. It was tried out in Oregon a few days ago with reported success. Lanthicum advanced the idea five years ago and still thinks it would help a game that needs help in some sections. On the other side, Herb (N. Y. Post) Allen suggests that if New York referees were put in coats above the backboards, Pat Kennedy would drop through the hoop often than the ball.

Today's Guest Star

Banjo Smith, Columbia (S. C.) Record: "Elizabeth Ryan, the veteran red-head who won 19 Wimbledon championships, says women tennis players would do fine if they'd just learn to use their heads. This probably makes the first time you've ever heard tennis compared to automobile driving."

Odds—And Some Ends

Spencer Murphy, pro at New York's Glen Oaks golf club, got word the other day that he was pappy of a baby girl. A short time later he heard that 2,000 steel club heads, held in England, had been released for shipment. Murphy still is trying to decide which was the better news. The Chicago Cubs are set for the season in one respect. They have enough baseballs on hand to last through 1942. The Green Bay Packers' corporation has tapped its reserve fund to purchase all the defense bonds the law allows. Joe Kirkwood, the trick-shot golfer, will dodge the winter tournaments and appear in sportsmen's shows in Boston, New York, Detroit and Indianapolis. Danny MacFadden's Hebrew academy hockey team is doing so well that fans suggest a trial against a crack Canadian schoolboy outfit.

ALTHOUSE MOTORS EDGE VIKINGS IN GOOD TILT, 45-39

B. Schaeffer Paces Locals With 12; Suitt, Seman Lead Garrettsville

Taking a lead early in the fourth period, the Althouse Motors won a good ball game from the Garrettsville Vikings, 45-39, on the Memorial building court last night. The loss was the first of the season for the Vikings.

The local five took an 8-7 edge in the first period as Bill Schaeffer hit neat shots from each corner. Frank Seman paced the visitors' attack in the first frame with a like number of points.

The Vikings got warmed up in the second stanza and with Louie Layer and Big Bill Suitt hitting the hoop with regularity soon wiped out the Motors' one point edge to go ahead by 20-18 at the half.

With Gordy Scullion and Sammy Drakulich dropping in shots from way out, the Motors built up their lead to eight points at several stages of the quarter only to see it dwindle again as the Vikings' Seman and Havens continued to flip 'em in.

In the last quarter, the Motors went ahead 41-35 with about a minute and a half to go. The second team was inserted into the fray and in less time than it takes to tell, the Vikings were trailing by one lone point. The first stringers were sent back in and long shots by Schaeffer and Bob "Buck" Ritchie tied the game.

Bill Schaeffer sparked the Motors to their win as he heaped five buckets and a pair of free throws for a 12 point total. Ritchie, Scullion, Drakulich and Knapp accounted for most of the balance of the scoring. Bill Suitt and Frank Seman tallied 10 apiece to pace the Vikings while Louie Layer tossed nine through the iron ring to give some valuable assistance.

In the preliminary game, the Cadets, present leaders in the Class B loop, defeated their nearest rivals, the Cavaliers, 33-28 in a non-league contest.

FLORALS WIN TEAM HONORS IN ANNUAL WOMEN'S TOURNEY

L. Hans-R. Burton Combine Fires 1,084 To Take Lead In Doubles

The Columbiana Floral keglers became the winners in the women's annual handicap bowling tourney as two teams which rolled last night failed to come anywhere near their mark of 2,576. The Square Beauty Shoppe, however, fired a 2,453 total to take sixth place in the standings and drop the Mullins five from the money.

The women's doubles event opened last night and L. Hans and R. Burton combined series of 441 and 469 plus a three game handicap of 174 pins to roll a 1,084 total and take the lead in the still young event. Trailing them by 72 pins were A. McLaughlin and E. Crawford who fired a 1,012 including a 252 handicap for three games.

In third place are F. Wilhelm and B. Helt who, with the aid of a 261 handicap, smashed out a 1,004 while in fifth were A. Bertollette and A. Bailey who hit a 1,001, 177 handicap included. H. Mayhew and M. DuBruc rolled an even 1,000 combined including a 156 handicap for three games.

The final standings for the team event are:

Columbiana Floral	2575
Ohio Edison	2512
Hoffmaster's	2478
Wark's	2473
Hald's	2461
Square Beauty Shoppe	2453
Kreese's	2441
Kaufman's	2408

The women's doubles will be finished off tomorrow night and the singles will begin the following Monday. The mark set by Hans and Burton in the doubles may not stand as many top-notch feminine keglers go into action tonight.

"THURSDAY'S CHILD" by VERA BROWN

FROM THE OLD RHYME: "THURSDAY'S CHILD HAS FAR TO GO"

CHAPTER FIFTEEN
Sergeant O'Regan arrived in five minutes. He recognized Sonny immediately. "What's all this about, Mrs. Hollister?"

Sonny tried to tell him, but words came in bunches. O'Regan took her a glass of water.

Her hands were trembling so, she spilled the water. "Won't you help me find him?" she pleaded.

"The hitch-hiker?"

"No Tommy! We can't let him lie out there."

"Where?"

"I don't know. I don't know. We drove and—drove."

"Who was driving?"

"I was. Tom was next to me—the man shot—and Tom fell against me!"

She looked down at the blood on her dress and her head dropped lower.

"Where's the gun?"

"I don't know—it was Tom's gun—he kept it in the pocket of the car."

O'Regan called in another trooper to stay with Sonny while he went out. He phoned some of his men to search the trailer parked off the road seven miles away. He finally called the Hollister home. When he came back, he sat looking at Sonny for a long time.

Then the chief and another man arrived and more troopers. They all looked at Sonny sobbing hysterically.

"We're going to take a statement, Mrs. Hollister," said the chief. "And we want you to know that anything you say will be held against you."

Sonny looked up, her eyes glazed. "I've told you."

"Tell us again."

Sonny started, haltingly. She and Tom had started for Malone. They'd picked up a hitch-hiker. He had a funny nose. What was he wearing? She couldn't be sure. But no coat. And blue trousers, she thought.

"Would you recognize him?" O'Regan asked.

"I'll never forget him as long as I live."

"What happened when he got into the car?"

"He talked to Tom. We drove along. Then all of a sudden he shot." Sonny's head bowed. She started to weep in the chair.

"Go on."

"He made me drive on. Tom was leaning against me and he never spoke. I could see the blood."

O'Regan thought she was going to faint, but she kept on in a queer high voice: "We drove and we drove over back roads. He made me! He held the gun at my side."

"It wasn't dark yet when we picked the man up."

"And you have been driving about since then?"

"Yes, driving and driving. Finally we stopped and he took Tom out of the car. I tried to run away; he shot at me."

"Your husband was dead?"

"I think he was. He never spoke."

"Go on."

"The man made me get back into the car and we drove some more. We stopped at a gasoline station, and he kept the gun at my side while we got gas."

"Who paid for it?"

"I did."

"Where was the gas station?"

"I don't know!"

Sonny was completely hysterical now and O'Regan gave up. He put her in the adjoining office, where there was a couch, and she lay down.

O'Regan's men had found the wrecked car down the road and were on their way to the trailer.

By that time the local newspaper men were at headquarters. The place was a madhouse. O'Regan would allow nobody to talk to Sonny. The stenographer was busy typing Sonny's statement for O'Regan. There were—what police term—many holes in it.

An hour later Sergeant O'Regan went back to question Sonny. She was quiet now, but shaking as though with ague. "I've told you everything," she gasped.

"How much money did Tom have?"

"I don't know. A lot. I saw a roll of bills. The man took them—and his watch."

"You saw that? It was dark."

"The lights of the car were on."

O'Regan watched her closely. During a lull in the questioning, Sonny asked for another dress. "Please don't make me keep this on. His blood—" she broke down again.

O'Regan called his home, asking his wife to bring over one of her house dresses. She was about the girl's size.

Mrs. O'Regan came with the frock, and helped Sonny change. The stained dress was put away carefully. The girl was then given a sedative, and she slept fitfully with the trooper watching. Now and then she cried out in her sleep: "Tom, Tom! I told you it couldn't last!"

The trooper felt a little sick. He'd have to report that. When he did, O'Regan looked more grim than ever.

The hours crept on. At dawn, the men came back from the trailer. They had a bundle of stuff. O'Regan checked it all. There were some papers taken from a traveling bag. He locked them in the safe and stood up. His duty was clear.

O'Regan went back to Sonny. She was awake. "Why did you quarrel?" he asked.

"Quarrel? We didn't!"

"Why did you think your marriage couldn't last?"

"We were too happy."

Something in O'Regan's eyes made Sonny start, but she controlled herself. Then he said, "We must try to find your husband. Do you feel well enough to come out and help us?"

"Yes," responded Sonny. She, O'Regan and two other troopers, got into a police car. There was a blaze of flashlight bulbs; a carload of newspaper men trailed them. Other cars, too, were scouting that section of the mountains.

"I'll know if we come near the road where he made me turn."

"Would you recognize the gas station?"

"I think so. Keep on driving south. We turned around, after Tom was shot."

"They went on until dark. Then they gave up. 'We'll try tomorrow,' O'Regan said. He had talked with Sonny all during the search."

"Where is the gun?"

"I don't know. The man must have taken it."

She had stuck to her original story.

"She's smart," whispered one of the troopers. "Maybe she'll get away with it."

"Not a chance!" said the other. "Not with what's in that office safe!"

Back at the jail, Sonny kept repeating: "You've got to find him!"

"Don't worry. We will," O'Regan did not add—"If he is there."

At nine o'clock, Kirk and his father arrived. Reporters gathered about them, but they would not talk. O'Regan took them into the inner office.

Kirk was the first to speak: "Surely you don't suspect the girl?"

O'Regan unlocked the safe, drew out some papers, threw them on the desk. They were insurance policies, totaling $1,000,000, with double indemnity for violent death.

Kirk and his father stood speechless. The policies were but four days old.

"Did you know your son had taken en out this enormous insurance on his life for his wife?"

Hollister answered brokenly. "He couldn't have—he didn't—have the money—for premiums."

"Oh, yes he did. He put up a valuable ring as partial security for the first premium."

Kirk exclaimed, Grandmother's ring!"

Hollister was suddenly an old man.

Kirk asked to see Sonny. O'Regan led him into the inner office, where she sat huddled in a chair. When Sonny saw him, she ran to him, crying: "Kirk! Kirk!" He took her in his arms and tried to comfort her.

"They don't believe me, Kirk. They don't believe me!"

When Sonny finally quieted down, Kirk looked down into her eyes searchingly. "Did you know that Tom took out a large insurance in your name the day before you left?"

Sonny looked up at Kirk in amazement. "No, I didn't."

"The policies were found in the trailer."

"No!" A frantic cry from Sonny's lips. Even in her distraught state she could see what Kirk meant.

Sudden terror filled her eyes. "It can't be true!"

"But it is. I just saw them. He pawned your ring to raise part of the money for the first premium."

Sonny was desperate in protest.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as Lively as a Youngster—

Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
